

CAFRE Fair Processing Statement

What personal information does CAFRE hold on me?	CAFRE holds information such as your: Name and address, date of birth, academic and accommodation records, records of any medical conditions or learning needs, driving license details, phone numbers, parents'/guardians' contact details, work history, your photograph etc.
Why is this information needed?	To enable CAFRE (or an agency working on CAFRE's or DAERA's behalf) to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Contact you • Meet its legal requirements • Fulfil its obligations to you, college staff & other students on campus • Record and monitor your academic, personal or social progress. • Register you with the Awarding Body on your course. • Register you with Government organisations for a Unique Learner Number. • Identify any health issues or learning needs that need to be addressed. • Carry out a survey to establish your views on the course and record your post qualification employment destination.
Who will see it?	Teaching staff, your tutor, administration staff, accommodation/farm staff if appropriate, LRS (Learner Records Service), Awarding Bodies and staff carrying surveys on behalf of DAERA. If you have particular requirement, information will be shared with other staff and outside organisations with your permission.
How will records be stored?	Records will be kept secure, and no unauthorised access allowed
Can I ask for information to be kept confidential?	Yes. You can ask for personal information such as health conditions, disabilities etc to be kept confidential, or you can ask that they are only disclosed to specific people or organisations
Can I change my mind about disclosing information?	Yes, but you must give us written notice of your decision.
What happens if my circumstances change?	Again, it is your responsibility to notify us of any change in your circumstances or health status. A Change of Circumstances Form is available in your Induction information pack.
How long will CAFRE retain my records?	Paper copies of your records are normally kept for seven years after you leave.
What happens after 7 years?	They will be shredded. We only retain a record of what qualifications you have achieved.
Have I access to these records?	Yes. You can get access by applying to Shane Gervin in College Administration, Loughry Campus, Cookstown, BT80 9AA.
What happens if there are mistakes in the records?	If mistakes are found, you can ask for these to be corrected.
Will information be shared with third parties?	Yes. CAFRE has a legal requirement to record and to disclose certain information to other Government Departments. Information will only be disclosed to others with your consent e.g. to your awarding body to register you on your course, and if you are under 18, with your parents or guardians.

Declarations
• I consent to CAFRE processing and disclosing all my personal data for the above purposes?	Yes <input type="checkbox"/>
• I consent to CAFRE sending me marketing information in the future about related courses?	Yes <input type="checkbox"/>
• I consent to CAFRE using my photograph in future publicity materials e.g. articles, leaflets, etc.	Yes <input type="checkbox"/>
The information above has been explained to me and I confirm that the information held on me is correct. Whilst attending the College I undertake to immediately advise CAFRE of any future changes to this information. Signed: _____ Dated: _____	