1. Introduction

Higher Education learners are liable for the relevant course tuition fee when they register and enrol formally on their programme of study. The appropriate fees are payable from the date of first registration to the date of the end of the academic year or completion of the course.

2. Scope

This policy applies to all CAFRE Higher Education Programmes with the exception of Queen's University Belfast (QUB) validated programmes who follow the respective QUB policy and procedures.

3. Procedure

3.1 Tuition fee rates

Tuition fee rates for full-time and part-time undergraduate and postgraduate programmes are detailed on the CAFRE website at Funding Support | Student Support | Fees and Funding - CAFRE

3.2 Students withdrawing from their programmes

If students leave their programme after registration but before 2nd January 2024, they will be liable to pay 25% of the tuition fees.

If students leave their programme on or after 2nd January 2024 but before 8th April 2024 they will be liable to pay 50% of the tuition fees.

If students leave their programme after 8th April 2024, they will be charged tuition fees for the full academic year.

3.3 Repeating a programme year following outcome of an Ulster University Exam Board

If learners are repeating a year with attendance as deemed by the Exam Board then they will be liable to pay the full tuition fees for that year.

If learners are repeating a year without attendance as deemed by the Exam Board then they will be liable to pay the Ulster University registration fee

3.4 Resit Fees for Higher Education Assignments and Examinations

Learners must pay resubmission/resit fees before being permitted to resubmit work/resit examinations. The following resubmission/resit fees are payable by the learner:-

A resit examination carries a charge of £25/piece of work which is payable to the Campus Administration Section before the resit examination can be taken.

A resit assignment carries a charge of £25 which is payable to the Campus Administration Section on submission of the assignment. Work that is being resubmitted will only be accepted for marking if accompanied by a receipt indicating that the fee has been paid.

3.5 Tuition or Resit fee debt

Learners with outstanding debts relating to a resit and/or tuition will not be permitted to graduate or progress to the next year of a programme.

4. Further Information

Learners studying Higher Education courses can apply for financial support to assist with their living expenses and/or tuition fees through student loans as well as government grants, bursaries and scholarships from the College. Full details of financial support available can be found at www.cafre.ac.uk Further information may be obtained from the College's Student Support Officers.
